SUCCESSFUL EXPEDITION FROM VICKSBURG.

The Communications of the Enemy Cut off. VICKSBURG, Dec. 4, via CAIRO, Dec. 9 .- Maj. Gen. Dana, by a successful expedition from Vicksburg, destroyed the Mississippi Central Railroad for 30 miles above Big Black Crossing, including the Long Bridge at that place, Where the enemy were found in force, but the work was thoroughly done. The troops returned to Vicksburg with a loss of 5 killed and 41 wounded and missing.

Twenty-five thousand bales of Confederate cotton, and $300,000 worth of other property was destroyed.

FURTHER REBEL ACCOUNTS. Sherman Reported to be Moving on Savan-

The latest Southern papers report that Gen-Sherman has abandoned the shortest route for Augusta, and appears to be drifting towards Savannah. He was delaying for the purpose of gathering supplies while his territorial range was not too contracted by the operations of Wheeler.

The Augusta Constitu ionalist thinks "he has not for a moment hesitated as to the point to be attacked or the road to it," saying, "The enemy broke camp at Louisville early on the morning of the 2d instant, abandoning the shortest route to Augusta, moving by a new route in the direction of Savannah." The Constitutionalist also lays out the following campaign for Sherman, as being the most natural and feasible one:

"Forage and provision trains full, he will pass his entire army to Millen, then throwing his cavalry in the rear, will put wagon trains between the two wings of his army and march in compact columns steady and cautiously on the city of Savannah. The Ogeechee and its few crossings and terrible swamps on his right and the Savannah river on his left, both flanks will be most securely covered, and thus situated he has a march of something over 80 miles "Traveling at the rate he has averaged since leaving Atlanta, he would reach there by the 9th, provided he should not be checked by the "The Oconee bridge had not been burned, although desperate attempts had been made to

The Richmond Enquirer of the 7th reports that no new movements had been made in the direction of Grahamsville. The Federal troops engaged consisted of four regiments of whites and four of blacks. About 1,300 men were found on the field dead and wounded. Another Fight on December 4th-General

Kilpatrick Reported Wounded. From the Richmond Inquirer, Dec. 6] We learn that an official telegram received at night states that Gen. Wheeler has inflicted another severe blow upon the enemy. The locality of this fight is not given, for sufficient reasons. It occurred last Sunday morning. One corps of the enemy and Kilpatrick's cavalry attacked Wheeler in a strong position. They came up boidly to the attack, and made several charges, all of which were repulsed by Wheeler's men, who, though largely outnumbered, maintained their ground, and raked

FROM THE FRONT. The Movement on Lee's Right Flank.

The mail steamer Cossack arrived here at one o'clock to-day from City Point. She confirms the reported massing of the second and fifth corps near the Jerusalem plank road Tuesday night, and their subsequent march towards Stony Creek Station on Wednesday night. Up to the hour at which the Cossack left City Point-10 o'clock yesterday morning-nothing definite had been heard as to the result of the movement, and there was nothing to indicate that the progress of the troops had been stopped, or that a fight was going on.

The cold weather is having a telling effect upon the rank and file of Lee's army, and large numbers of deserters are again coming into our lines. The Cossack brought up about fifty of these poor fellows, who suffered much from the cold, being thinly clad in most instances and without blankets. The Cossack ran aground last night off Maryland Point, where she laid about four hours before being able to get off, which will account for her late arrival here.

REJOICING IN THE NAVY OVER THE RE-BLECTION OF PRESIDENT LINCOLN. U. S. SHIP NIAGARA, ANTWERP, 22d Nov. 1864 .- Sir: Telegrams yesterday announced the re-election of his Excellency President Lincoln. The Niagara was immediately dressed with our national flag flying at her mastheads. Considering this to be the greatest and most important contest of the war, and most glorious in its results, I have again dressed ship to-day, and at noon fired a salute of twenty-one guns. It is, I believe, the first time since our national existence, that such a demonstration was made by any of our ships of war, but the occasion seems so momentous and all-glorious to me, that I could not resist the impulse to thus manifest my joy. I have the honor to be, sir, your obedient ser-

Lieut. Com'r James E. She has been sent to Philadelphia for adjudication.

Surmishing continued for some time, when the object of the movement having been accomplished, the expedition returned. Our loss was seven men wounded; that of the enemy unknown. Some of those who accompanied this party report that firing was heard in the direction of Stony Creek, which would indicate that fighting was going on between General Warren and the enemy. Reports are current that an early evacuation of Petersburg may be looked for; but very little attention is paid to these rumors. W. D. McGREGOR.

OPINIONS OF THE RICHMOND PRESS. The Army Concentrated on December 5th and Marching Southwest of Millen. [From the Richmond Whig, Dec. 6.]

We have reason to believe, from all we have heard, that Sherman's army was united, and is marching with measured pace towards the Atlantic coast, south or southwest of Millen. We also have reason to anticipate a battle at some point north or northwest of Savannah ere the close of the present week. From Georgia.

From Richmond Examiner, Dec. 7. The military drama in Georgia is drawing rapidly to its denouement. General Sherman is at last approaching the coast whither he has been traveling twenty-three days. Whether he will complete the journey or not depends very much upon certain events which will occor this week. There are troops in his front who will resolutely dispute his further advance towards Savannah or Darien, after he passes a certain point. It is reported that his advance was skirmishing yesterday morning with our outposts. We do not know what Sherman will do when he finds a formidable force in his front, but are disposed to believe that he will discard strategy, and attempt to break through the lines of his opposers. Let him do what he will, he will certainly feel that never was General in a more critical sit-

The Augusta Constitutionalist of the 3d inst. says that just before going to press it was informed that the enemy's main body had passed Millen, en route for the coast or destruction. In a paragraph previously written, it says: Sherman, from all reliable sources, seems to have halted recently in order to grind corn As he tends towards the barren counties of the South, it became necessary to make the proper provision. His foraging parties are constantly driven in by our cavalry, and compelled to hug the main body. His forage is reported to A letter in the Constitutionalist, from Milledgeville, says: "The Yankees were admirably clothed and appointed. THE CASE OF DR. KRASBY .- The trial of Dr J. B. Keasby, surgeon to the Board of Enrollment of this District, charged with being engaged in procuring substitutes contrary to the act of Congress, with willful neglect to make faithful examinations and true reports of persons presenting themselves for substitutes and recruits, and for conduct prejudicial to good order and military discipline, was resumed this morning by the court-martial, of which Brig. Gen. Briggs is president and Lieut. Col Burham judge advocate, now in session at No. 467 14th street.

The evidence was entered upon, and the Judge Advocate offered the appointment of the accused to the position of surgeon to the Board of Enrollment, with the letter of acceptance, both bearing date of May 30, 1863, and the instructions of the Provost Marshal General to the provost marshals of the different districts as evidence, which were received, the accused consenting if the latter was received as being received by the provost marshal and not by the surgeon. [This regulation directs the pro-vost marshal to facilitate the examination of recruits.]

Maj. H. A. Hutchins, Paymaster, sworn .-Witness is engaged in paying detached officers, &c., and has been on this duty since September, 1862. Witness has paid the accused from some time in 1863 to October, 1864, as lieutenant of cavalry. An objection was raised by the accused that as the act of Congress prescribed the pay of the surgeon, the witness could not be questioned as to such, and the court was cleared. On reopening the doors the Judge Advocate stated that the objection was sus-Major Hutchins resumed .- He had received directions in relation to commutation of forage.

The accused had received from witness the pay of a lieutenant of cavalry for each month, to include September 30th last. Witness had never paid any commutation of forage for Dr. Capt. John C. Putnam, 1st V. R. C., and Provost Marshal. - Witness has been Provost Marshal since June 2d last. Witness produced the book kept by Dr. Keasby, and testified that the entries of May 11 were in the handwriting of the accused, and read the names of Washington Tait, Wm. Harris, John Toliver, J. Coleman, and others. Witness also testified to the entries of May 12, and read the names Harvey Harrison, John Mason, B. Newton, Wm. Adams, Jos. Smith, Wm. Smith, and Robert Wells. Some of these were presented by C. A. Keasby and others by H. H. Arnold; some accepted and others rejected for each. At this stage of the proceeding a recess was taken till one o'clock. On reassembling at one o'clock the examination of Capt. J. C. Putnam was resumed.

SALE OF LORD LYONS' EFFECTS. - The horses, carriages, wines, brandies, etc., be-longing to the establishment of Lord Lyons in this city were sold yesterday afternoon by Auctioneer Fisher. His Lordship's coach and span were purchased for the acting British minister. Most of the wines were bid off by Colonel Puleston for the Metropolitan Club. Mr. Wormley secured some of the best sherries. The wines ranged frem $30 to $40 a dozen. and the brandies sold at $7.50 per bottle. The whole stock amounted to about 1,000 bottles. It is feared that the state of health of Lord turn to this country soon, if at all. Mr. Sheffield, one of the attaches of the Britsh Legation, is also in ill-health, we hear, and will probably return to England.

MODERN TIMES!

The plot is so complicated and thrilling as to hold the reader spell bound, and it is worked up with a skill and power which is absolutely wonderful. Nobody can arise from the perusal of this great story without feeling that it was the work of no common mind, and without regretting that it ended so soon. Everybody should read it, for while it is undoubtedly sensational, it is at the same time strictly moral in tone and in the lesson which it teaches. which it teaches.

Jones, decreased, on the premises, on WEDNESDAY, the 21st day of December, 1864, at 12 o'clock m., (if fair, if not, the pext fair day thereafter.) the real estate of which the said Jones died seized and possessed, being a tract or parcel of land called "Yarrow," containing about 500 ACRES. This property will be sold in lots to suit purchasers, and is most admirably situated for residences and for farming and grazing purposes—being almost contiguous to the Baltimore and Washington Railroad, and distant but a few minutes' walk from Beages' Station,

The soil is naturally kind, and of good quality, well adapted to grass, very easily improved, has a large Orchard, and, with the ald of fertilizers, might be rendered most valuable and productive, and made a first-class Farm. The location is elevated, commanding and healthy, and the superior advantages it possesses on account of its location should recommend it to the consideration of capitalists; and those desirous of making a judicious investment would do well to attend the sale.
